QUEBEC-ONTARIO ALL-STAR BASKETBALL GAME SUNDAY

The top high school basketball players in the Province of Quebec and Ontario will clash this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in Loyola College's Fourth Annual High School All-Star Game. The game will be played in the Loyola Athletic Complex. Admission is free.

The home team will be coached by Mike Ruckenstein who piloted his team to a CHIAA Championship. Mike Awender of Windsor Ontario will be the Coach of the Ontario team.

Leading candidates for the Quebec team include Norrie Herman and Howie Cohen of West Hill; Rick Cadieux, St. Thomas; Wayne Hussey and Chris Hunter, Beaconsfield High and Brad Upshaw, Sir Winston Churchill.

Try-out sessions are currently in progress. Dennis Smith 6'2" of Assumption High in Windsor heads the list of Ontario All-Stars. Smith a deadly inside and outside shooter is regarded as the finest basketballer in upper Canada. Key members of the Ontario squad Gord Wilson and Frank Nagy from Brantford, a pair of 6'5" forwards should provide Ontario with considerable strength on the boards.

The game is rated as a toss-up affair.
